

Our Mission

Worshiping God in Spirit and in Truth

Blessed Hope Adventist Church seeks to make a positive impact on our community in northeastern West Palm Beach by sharing our faith, giving people hope, living Christ's love, and teaching the truth of scripture with the urgency of the three angels' messages of Revelation 14:6-12.

With the power of the Holy Spirit, like the early church of Acts, we want to follow Jesus Christ; to minister as He did while on Earth, and do what He would do if He were walking the streets of West Palm Beach today. We seek to live out Christ's own mission statement that He announced in Luke 4:18-19: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed, and to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord."

Jesus came "to seek and to save the lost" (Luke 19:10). Following Christ's example, we want to reach our community with the Good News of the Gospel because "God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved" (John 3:17). We recognize that: Christ's method alone will give true success in reaching the people. The Saviour mingled with people as one who desired their good. He showed His sympathy for them, ministered to their needs, and won their confidence. Then He bade them, "Follow Me."

There is need of coming close to the people by personal effort. If less time were given to sermonizing, and more time were spent in personal ministry, greater results would be seen. The poor are to be relieved, the sick cared for, the sorrowing and the bereaved comforted, the uneducated instructed, the inexperienced counseled. We are to weep with those that weep, and rejoice with those that rejoice. The Ministry of Healing, p. 143 (par.)

Jesus said the church "shall be called a house of prayer for all nations" (Mark 11:17). At Blessed Hope, we want to provide a place of faith, hope, and love for all people (I Cor. 13:13).
